05 ARQUETIPO AA headquarters

The Headquartes office of Arquetipo AA in Caracacas is a project of quality and luxury where functionality, details, and decor take a primary objetive of the design.

The project itself is based on a vanguard design house of the 50´'s located on the north hills of the beautifull valley of Caracas. This new project maintains the originial architecture of the house, but adapts its design to the current requiremnts and codes,whereeachelementcovers functionality and beauty.

In this project each functional element also fulfills a decorative roll

Items that stand out:

- The doors and gates
- The dividing walls
- The pool
